

CONEXIM PRIVACY NOTICE

1ST JUNE 2023

INTRODUCTION - CONEXIM APPROACH TO DATA PRIVACY

Conexim is a market leading open architecture Investment Platform, providing a range of investment solutions to the intermediary market and whose offering is available through Financial Advisors, Accountancy Firms and Pensioner Trustees. Conexim is a member of the Irish Life Group of companies, and a subsidiary of Great-West LifeCo Inc who are one of the world's leading life assurance organisations.

In order to provide clients, intermediaries, Trustees, and other market participants with our services, Conexim is required to control personal data for clients, intermediaries, and other parties with whom we provide services to or receive services from.

Conexim is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. Conexim has adopted the principle of Privacy by Design and has reviewed and appropriately modified our business processes to comply with this element of the GDPR.

We will ensure that the definition and planning of all new or significantly changed methods for collecting or otherwise processing personal data will be subject to due consideration of privacy issues, including the completion of data protection impact assessments, where necessary.

The use of techniques such as data minimisation and pseudonymisation will be considered where applicable and appropriate.

THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

This privacy notice explains when and why Conexim collects personal information, how it is used, the condition under which it may be disclosed to other and how it is kept secure.

Conexim may amend this privacy notice from time to time and unless there is a material change will not provide prior notification and will update this on its website and client access portals. If a material change is made to this privacy notice, clients who receive services from us will be informed via their client portal. Continued use of our services following any such changes constitutes your acknowledgment and acceptance of those amendments and your agreement to be bound by them.

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR CLIENTS DO WE COLLECT AND WHY?

Primarily, we collect personal information only to provide you with services, and to comply with relevant regulations and laws, including internal operating procedures and compliance checks.

The consent for the lawful basis for controlling and processing your personal information is given when you apply for an account at Conexim, and enter into a contract with use to provide you with services.

We also have a legal obligation to control and process your personal information to comply with Central Bank of Ireland regulations and Revenue obligations, for which you also give consent when you apply for an account at Conexim.

Conexim does not market its services to the general public as it operates only through intermediaries. Therefore, we will not contact you for marketing purposes, and contact is restricted to that required for us to service your account.

The reasons and types of data we collect is summarised overleaf, along with the primary parties who provide services to us in relation to that data as data processors. Please note that some parties may use sub-processors that are not listed below.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS AROUND DATA?

You have a number of rights over your personal information which you can exercise free of charge by contacting us using the contact details in this Privacy Notice. You will need to give us information to help us identify you and we will respond to you within one month in line with regulation. Any restrictions to your rights will be explained in our response.

RIGHT TO BE INFORMED

You have the right to be informed when data is collected and for what purposes. This is typically contained in the same forms that we request data from you so is implicit when you provide the forms to us that we are collecting that information. If we acquire data on you from other sources, you have the right to be informed of what data we have collected for you from other sources.

RIGHT TO ACCESS INFORMATION WE HOLD FOR YOU

You have the right to access the information we hold for you by providing a data access request. This will detail why we hold it, who we pass it to, where we got it from, whether we carried out any automated decisions using this data, whether we transfer it outside of the EU, how long we keep it for.

RIGHT TO BE INFORMED OF MATERIAL BREACHES

We have controls in place to protect your personal information and minimise the risk of security breaches. However, should any material breaches occur, or a breach that results in a high risk for you in terms of loss of protection in relation to your personal information, we will inform you without undue delay, along with making the relevant regulatory reports.

RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION

You can ask us to correct and update personal information we hold about you. It is important we have your up to date personal information, such as contact details.

RIGHT TO ERASURE

If we have provided a regulated product or service to you, we must keep your personal information for a minimum period required by law or regulation. However, you can have your personal information deleted if it is incorrect, if it is no longer needed or has been processed unfairly or unlawfully. If you have withdrawn consent you can ask for your personal information to be deleted.

We will keep a record of your request, so we know why your personal information was deleted.

RIGHT TO DATA PORTABILITY

You can ask for a copy of all personal information that you gave us (including through your interactions with us), and which we hold in an automated and machine readable format. You may also request us to send this personal information in a machine readable format to another company, where possible, and where both parties have the ability to exchange data in this manner.

RIGHT TO RESTRICT PROCESSING OR OBJECT TO PROCESSING

You can restrict or object to any unfair and unlawful collection or use of your personal information. You can object to any automated decision making that has a legal or similar significant impact for you and ask for the decision to be made by a person. You can withdraw consent and object to, for example direct marketing.

HOW DO WE ENSURE THAT DATA IS UP TO DATE AND ACCURATE?

We periodically request clients to confirm their details to us. Should you become aware that your data is not up to date or is inaccurate, please inform us as soon as possible so we can rectify this.

HOW LONG TO WE HOLD PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR?

We retain personal information in line with regulations, currently 6 years following the cessation of a client relationship.

DO WE TRANSFER DATA OUTSIDE OF THE EU?

Your personal information is processed and stored within the EU. However, we do pass personal information securely to our parent company Great-West Lifeco in Canada. We do this for administration purposes. When we do certain secure transfers these files temporarily reside on Canadian servers owned by Great West Life Co. Passing your personal information to certain countries including Canada, is allowed under an adequacy decision made by the European Commission.

Passing your personal information to certain countries, is allowed under Article 49(1)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulation which states "the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the controller, or the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken at the data subject's request".

Where we, or our data processors, transfer your personal data outside the EEA, we will take steps to ensure that your personal information is adequately protected and transferred in line with data protection law. Any potential transfers of personal data outside the EU will be carefully reviewed prior to the transfer taking place. This is so that we can ascertain that the receiving third country falls within the limits imposed by the GDPR and that they have appropriate safeguards in place in relation to privacy and personal data protection.

SHARING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential but may be disclosed to the Pensions Authority, Revenue Commissioners, the Financial Services & Pensions Ombudsman, auditors, professional financial advisors and other service providers in connection with your account(s) in Conexim.

Your PPS number is your Personal Public Service Number. It is a unique identifier for use in transactions with public bodies such as the Revenue Commissioners and the Pensions Authority and is used by Unio Financial Services Ltd for this purpose.
